HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS
Policy and Procedures

POLICY
I. Students must adhere to all Georgia State University Housing policies and deadlines. To receive full consideration for on-campus housing accommodations students must submit all paperwork within the time limits established by Georgia State University Housing or if the waiting list for housing reaches their name.

II. The Office of Disability Services works in cooperation with Georgia State University Housing to assist students with on-campus housing needs. If Disability Services determines that the documentation supports a reason accommodation, a request for accommodations is submitted to Georgia State University Housing on the student’s behalf. In the event that Housing is unable to meet a student need, an alternative accommodation may be requested.

III. In the event that a student’s documentation supports the necessity of a private room, HOUSING will attempt to find a location available from existing single rooms. Students must pay single/private room rate.

PROCEDURE
To request accommodations in housing, students should complete and/or submit to Disability Service ALL of following documents on or before applicable Housing deadlines:

I. Voluntary Disclosure form
II. Supporting documentation from the appropriate professional outlining the need for accommodations in housing.
III. Housing Accommodations Request Form

Students who are also requesting academic accommodations should complete the Request for Academic Accommodations and the Housing Accommodations form.
