(Hired student)

On behalf of the Margaret A. Staton Office of Disability Services, we wish you success this semester. In order to serve our students better, you must adhere to the following policies:

1. If applicable, hired notetakers must complete new hire paperwork. Failure to complete new hire paper work prior to submitting logs could delay payment for 30 days.
2. Notetakers are expected to attend class/lab on a regular basis. If the notetaker cannot attend the class, it is the notetaker’s responsibility to find a replacement to take notes for that class/lab session or make arrangements to obtain notes for the missed class/lab and forward them to the student. The notetaker must notify the registered student prior to the class, or if the registered student has chosen to remain anonymous the notetaker will notify the instructor.
3. Notetakers agree to provide student(s) with a legible copy of his/her detailed notes within 24 hours of each class. The student/instructor and notetaker will determine the method of delivery.
4. Notetaker must have student/instructor sign notetaker log for each set of notes given to the student. The student registered with Disability Services or instructor is the notetaker(s) immediate supervisor. Report any issues related to notetaker duties to the student/instructor. Report delays in compensation to Disability Services.
5. Notetakers are hired as student assistants and are paid monthly at a rate of $8 per set of notes. For example, if the class meets MWF, notetaker provides student with 3 days of class notes for 4 weeks, he/she is compensated $96 per month.
6. Notetaker logs are due to Disability Services office by the assigned date. Notetaker logs received late may result in delayed or forfeited payment.

By signing below, you agree to adhere to policies above. Contact Disability Services with any questions or concerns.
